BUDO MAGAZINE

Welcome at BUDO MAGAZINE with a Kancho Gerard Gordeau special, for his students and fanbase. This year was a very buisy year for the Kancho who travelled to many different countries to coach and teach the Martial Arts. Arts like Kyokushinkai Karate, Kickboxing and Jujutsu. Kancho travelled to Hungary, Portugal, Italia, Poland, Latvia and Japan this year for the International Budokai Organization. A worldwide Organization for Full Contact Karate and related arts.

Kancho turned 60 this year and celebrated this with a free e-book written by Vilan Van de loo which you can download free in dutch on the www.internationalbudokai.com website. Together with his brother Hanshi Nico Gordeau he hosted the Open European Championships Kyokushin Karate for the 26th time in The Hague Netherlands, the only European Championship Full Contact Karate in a real ring. They also celebrated the 35th year of Honbu Kamakura Dojo The Hague Netherlands. Kancho was on television at FOX-SPORTS together with his team Sensei Pepels, Sempai Smit and Sempai De Kok for the celebration of the UFC and the first ever UFC tournament in the Netherlands 2016. Remember that Kancho Gordeau and Teila Tuli where the first UFC fighters ever.

In November Kancho was back in Japan together with IBK fighters Yuri Villani and Cem Senol to fight the WKO World Kumite Organization World Cup and to teach Kyokushin Karate at several Dojo's in Japan. There was also a meeting with Yuki Nakai the top BBJ fighter. The 2016 trip to Japan was a great succes. After this the International Budokai Organization received many new members from Croatia, Sri Lanka and Africa.
